(SRI A. G. RAMACHANDRA RAO).

Sir, the Mysore Ministers' Salaries and Allowances (Amendment) Bill, 1953, is a short and simple Bill. There are no amendments and the Bill is simple enough. In view of the fact that in 'travel by train', the first class would be abolished, consequential amendments are suggested. The abolition of first class in trains is said to come into force from 1st October. As a suitable provision has to be made in view of that, this Bill is brought forward.

BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE.

Mr. SPEAKER.—The remaining Bills will be taken up on Monday and if time permits, the discussion on Education Reforms will be taken up.

* Sri J. MOHAMED IMAM (Jagalur).—Appropriation Bill has to be taken up on Monday. As the programme stands we are also expected to discuss Andhra Bill.

Mr. SPEAKER.—It is not so according to the new programme. It is subject to modification.

Sri J. MOHAMED IMAM.—I suggest that you may give us definite programme because we find some Bills which are not in the programme are taken up unexpectedly for which we will not be prepared. We would like the Leader of the House, after consultation, to give us a final programme so that we may know whether the session is likely to be extended and if so, up to what date and what is the business and when the Andhra Bill will come up. The discussion of the Educational Reforms Committee Report has not yet been finished and none with the exception of Sri Bheemappa Naik have spoken on that Bill. The main business is still left over. I would like to know what the revised programme will be and how long are we likely to stay here and what is the business that we are likely to take up.

Mr. SPEAKER.—By tomorrow evening and if need be on Monday, you will be able to know the definite programme.

The House will now rise for the day and meet at 12 NOON on Monday, 20th July 1953.

The House adjourned at Twenty-two Minutes past Twelve of the Clock to meet again at Twelve of the Clock on Monday the 20th July 1953.
